Dedicated DJ Suite (Updated 2022)

Q: What is DDJ? A: Dedicated DJ Suite is an audio-visual DJ software application originally designed for the classroom (K-12), audio, light and video production studios, and public address systems. DDJ is now the preferred software for professional DJs using CD decks. Q: What is UDJ? A: UDJ is the updated version of the DJS database. It is designed to store and organize over 400,000 music tracks and is the only database of its kind to do so. Q: Will DDJ work with TDJ? A: Yes, but the two programs must both be running. If you are using the DDJ Writer, TDJ will show up as a selection in the options. Q: What are the differences between DDJ and TDJ? A: It's very important that you have both of these programs running. If you have only one of them running, you will not be able to configure TDJ. If you have both running, TDJ will read the current configuration information as well as store any special music preferences you have for a particular song or dance number. Q: What is the difference between TDJ and DJ Up Edition? A: TDJ is a complete DJ application. You can configure several music formats, cue files, loops and other DJ elements. TDJ can do everything that DDJ can do plus more. TDJ comes fully loaded with over 350 music libraries and templates, such as ballroom dance information, along with Dance Statistics. TDJ can handle, playback, cue, and loop up to 32 audio files. DDJ can handle up to 64 audio files. TDJ can handle the playlist and cue up to 32 music files.
